Catholic Central Performance – Road to Calvary

Catholic Central Secondary School is pleased to present the “Road to Calvary – A living representation of the Stations of the Cross” produced by our Campus Ministry Team. This production will feature students from our drama, dance and music departments, and our English department will be proclaiming the Stations of the Passion and Death of our Lord. Students will read aloud the narrative story and offer a personal reflection on each station while the audience is captivated by both modern and traditional dance movements. This free event will be held at the Catholic Central Auditorium on Wednesday, March 27, 2013 at 7:00 p.m. Seating is limited to 200 people. Tickets must be obtained in advanced and will not be available at the door.
